

Independent

UK Feature 'detailing and colour emerges with each successive listening'

Guardian

UK Four*stars 'soaring vocals and impressive multi-instrumental work'

THE TIMES

UK Four*stars 'Kanté's most satisfying release in years'

THE AUSTRALIAN

Australia Fivestars 'shines with life and vibrancy... gorgeous melodies and intricate rhythms'

MOJO

UK Four*stars 'it's a cracker'

The Daily Telegraph

UK 'a full, rich sound... head and shoulders above most other acoustic griot albums released over the past decade'

UK Threestars 'another magical future classic'

The Courier-Mail

Australia Four*stars 'a feast for anyone interested in exploring beyond the narrow confines of mainstream music'

The Sydney Morning Herald

Australia 'like so much great West African music, this is compulsive and irresistible'

Evening Standard

UK Four*stars 'his vocals are strong'

THE DOMINION POST

New Zealand Four ½*stars 'uplifting and quietly contemplative... one of his finest albums to date'

UK Feature & Review Fivestars 'an acoustic triumph... one of the albums of the year'

USA 'a statement of joy...refreshing, satisfying.'

UK Threestars 'precedent-setting-all-acoustic effort... electric zeal'

UK Four*stars 'Sabou captures African soul music at its most inspired'

USA 'a triumph for Kanté, who deftly intertwines his devotion to acoustic music and his gift for creating cool tunes that transcend linguistic barriers'

UK 'both irresistible and euphoric'

Australia 'fabulous...a funky edgy rhythmic exposition'

UK 'I believe this delightful album is Kanté's best so far'

UK Four*stars 'a beautiful acoustic album'

'World Routes' – 13 June Robin Denselow: 'a quite extraordinary voice... it's tremendous.'

'Andy Kershaw' – 10 October Mory Kanté as guest and performer

'The Music Biz' – 5 August Mory Kanté interviewed by Mark Coles

'The Music Feature: The Super Rail Band' – 20 September Mory Kanté interviewed.

'Robert Elms' – 4 August Mory Kanté interviewed on live show

'Charlie Gillett' – 11 September Mory Kanté as Ping Pong guest